— Been Thinking About How to Cripple a Generation —

We've done that, you know. How?

We've totally immersed our offspring in a public "education" system that's almost totally controlled by Godless DEMOCRATS who, themselves, lack any semblance of credibly substantive education. Then, we've subjected many of our smartest kids to institutions of "'higher' learning," where their God-given sound minds are further contorted by pseudo-intellectual, neo-Liberal "professors" who're hell-bent on destroying this God-ordained republic. The burning questions, then, are these:

- ✓ Who'll PAY for that?
- ✓ WHEN?

"George Orwell said, 'There are some ideas so absurd that only an intellectual could believe them.' If one wants to discover the truth of Orwell's statement, he need only step upon most college campuses." —Walter E. Williams

Another writer says that we could cripple today's youthful generations by always writing in cursive and driving stick-shift cars! Yeah; that might work, too...

PS: There are clear signs that my own alma mater, now a university, is rapidly moving down the path that has yielded the civil demise of other well-known, originally-parochial colleges and universities that were founded by good folk with sensible Christian principles.
