

— Been Thinking About Human Tissue Harvesting —

For our less-perceptive readers, this is from the classic satirical perspective.

To get the best black market price for human body parts, ya’gotta make sure the tissue is either alive or really, really fresh. Hey! the abortion industry does good work, too, doncha know? Those harvested body parts save the lives of thousands of recipient human beings and improve the quality-of-life for many more.

DEMOCRATS insist that it’s just fetal tissue, part of a human hostess’s body. If the umbilical cord is severed before its removal from the hostess’s body, then it’s still not really “a baby,” but a severed “body part” of said hostess. That’s kind’a-sort’a like a benign tumor, maybe. A lot depends, of course, on whether that “body part” is alive or just “fresh.”

When the would-be arms, legs and head are ripped off that female hostess’s disposable body part before its removal from her body the tissue may not be alive, but it is still really “fresh.” Still fresh, too, when the internal organs get cut-out first.

Sound inhumane to you? Perhaps you’ll be delighted to learn of the report that, on the global scene, human body part harvesters have discovered what’s being called a “more humane” way to harvest fresh human body parts from living toddlers and adolescents. How could anyone call that “more humane?” Their response might be: “Many of our donors don’t die!” You thinking this is fiction? Here ya’go—

Yes, the worldview of those globalist harvesters is very similar to – and at least as irrational – as that of the U.S. DEMOCRAT Party. Ya’reckon they’d consider the eventual coming-together of those two entities a very natural progression for the global Progressive movement?

Awww shucks, y’all! It’s just a little bit of post-birth tissue harvesting to enhance to quality of life for lots of good people who really need that living tissue! Wouldn’t your Jesus demonstrate that kind of compassion?

Are you among those who’re fully aware that the non-profit abortion industry is enormously profitable?
