— “Christians in Name Only” —

“But as many as received him, to them gave he power to BECOME sons of God...” —John 1:12

There are Believers in Christ and there are Disciples of Christ. The great commission is all about making Disciples. Unfortunately, the global Christian community, including the U.S. visible church, is made up – mostly – of Believers.

I suppose I don't really have a problem with Believers calling themselves Christians. But there's the propensity to presume that believing in Christ and Christianity equates to eternal life. The CHURCH is made up of Disciples. I mean, even the devils believe!

The conscious decision to become Christ's Disciple includes a commitment to a lifetime of personal homework. That's addressed in multiple scriptures, including Hosea 4:6, Proverbs 1:22, John 5:39, 2 Timothy 2:15, Hebrews 11:16 & 1 Peter 3:16.

Such a false sense of security is more than marginally dangerous.
